WOMEN MUST NOW LEAVE PORT ARTHUR

The Food and Water are Needed by Defenders.

The Baltic Fleet Reported at Last Ready to Sail—No Big Battle Yet.

SITUATION IN THE FAR EAST

Home, Oct. 3.—A telegram from the four assets that general Stoessel, in command of Port Arthur, has ordered all women and children, except nurses, to leave the Port in order that food and water which are scarce, will last longer.

THE BALTIC SQUADRON.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—Announcement is made that Emperor Nicholas will visit Ravel Tuesday to bid farewell to the Baltic squadron. After months of preparation and several false starts, it is believed the squadron is at last on the eve of its departure upon its long journey.

The question of the war in the far east will depend upon the issue of the sea fight after the arrival of the Baltic fleet.

If the Japanese fleet is caught in such a weakened condition that the Baltic ships are to win the victory, the officials here hold that the other problems will solve themselves, and with Japanese communications severed, the Japanese army on the mainland will be at the mercy of the Russians.

HARD FIGHT AT PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, Oct. 3.—Severe fighting, the Russians being the aggressors, occurred on September 28 and 29, on the west shore of Liao Tung peninsula, near Pigeon bay, according to a report brought by a Chinese who left Port Arthur September 30. The Russians were in considerable force and they made several sorties, shelling field artillery with them. They were unsuccessful, however.
The Russian ships were silent during the battle and the hitherto mused surrounding ships, were, as a result of the fight, turned into hospitals.

Several Chinese were employed in carrying the dead, which were so numerous they were unable to form anything like an estimate of the number who fell in attacking and defending the supplementary forts near the mountain. Since the battle both sides continue to shell at intervals daily.

EFFORTS TO RETAKE FORTS.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The Russians are reported to be desperately endeavoring to retake their lost positions, including fort Kuropatkin, in the hope of restoring the water supply of Port Arthur.
They are said to have repeatedly assaulted the Japanese after shelling from neighboring forts and batteries. The Japanese continue to hold the positions.
Both sides are said to have suffered severely.

Newly mounted Japanese guns are said to command the entire harbor.

FOR TWENTY MILES.

London, Oct. 3.—A correspondent of the Times, just returned from the front, telegraphing from Tokio, says the Russians have two divisions on the Hunriver, four at Mukden and the remainder of the army concentrated at Tie Pass, which they are fortifying.

The three Japanese armies, the correspondent adds, occupy a front extending twenty miles north of Liao Yang in their original order.

In connection with the rumors of another projected sortie of the Port Arthur squadron, a Shanghai dispatch reports that a Russian warship was expected to arrive at Wosung Sunday night.

According to a Japanese correspondent such a sortie would only be attempted in the last extremity and when the surrender of the garrison could no longer be postponed.

STILL LINGERING NEAR DEATH'S DOOR

Postmaster General Payne Had Another Sinking Spell.

This Morning After Seven He Refused—Pittsburg Woman Suicides.

LADY CURZON IMPROVING

Washington, Oct. 3.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning Postmaster-General Payne had another sinking spell which continued until 7. During that period death was momentarily expected, and only the use of the most powerful stimulants in large doses prevented discention. Since 7 he has rallied somewhat, but the danger of death is said to still be imminent.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A bulletin issued this afternoon says there has been little improvement in Postmaster-General Payne's condition since morning.

JUMPED FROM BRIDGE.

Pittsburg, Oct. 3.—A woman found in the river here has been identified as Emma Frayer, inmate of a resort. It is supposed she committed suicide by jumping from the bridge.

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID.

New York, Oct. 3.—Charles J. McKay, a broker, committed suicide with carbolic acid today. He had been ill for some time.

STILL IMPROVES.

London, Oct. 3.—It is announced at Wahner Castle this morning that Lady Curzon's progress toward convalescence continues uninterrupted.

FIFTEEN REPORTED KILLED.

London, Oct. 3.—The express train which left Llanelli, Wales, today for London, met with a serious mishap details are not received, but it is reported that fifteen were killed and several injured.

reports the destruction of another Russian steamer used in clearing the mines at the entrance to Port Arthur harbor.
The steamer struck a mine and sank.

The reported loss of a Japanese gun-boat south of Liao Tung peninsula by striking a mine has not been confirmed.

MUST PRACTICE ECONOMY.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—Premier Katsura, in an interview this morning, said the war will continue a long time. The nation must be determined to achieve success, and make the necessary sacrifices.
It is hoped we may be able to secure greater economy with a greater efficiency in local administration.

RUSSIAN VESSEL LOST.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The navy department reports the destruction of another Russian steamer while clearing mines at the entrance of Port Arthur. The reported loss of a Japanese gunboat at the Port is unconfirmed.

A BIG BATTLE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—The news from the front this morning is fragmentary, indicating that nothing more than a continuance of preparations for the great battle. This battle now seems likely to occur north of Mukden in the neighborhood of Tie Ling, on the Liao river.

RECEIVED HIS MEN.

Chefoo, Oct. 3.—An official report from General Stoessel reached Chefoo today confirming the previous report of the repulse of the Japanese attack at Port Arthur, which began September 19, and ended on the 22nd. Japanese having refused, Gen. Stoessel issued a proclamation praising the bravery of his men.

Shanghai, Oct. 3.—A Russian warship supposed to be the armored cruiser Bayan, of the Port Arthur squadron, is reported anchored off Gutzlaf Island, in Hong Chau bay. Tugs will proceed thither to bring her to Shanghai.

THE TRAINS CANNOT MOVE

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 3.—It is rumored that Gen. Basilio, leader of the Urugu-ayan revolutionists, has been shot by his own followers.

Gen. Munoz succeeded to the leadership of the Uruguayan revolutionists after the death of Gen. Aparicio Saravia recently. Munoz soon afterward arranged peace with the government, but light revolutionary leaders, including two members of the family of Saravia mentioned that they declined to recognize the action of Munoz and that they could continue hostilities under Gen.
Ampillon.

The truce between the Uruguayan authorities and the revolutionists continues pending the acceptance or refusal of new peace proposals, the provisions of which have not been made public. Advices give reports of small engagements between the revolutionists there and the government forces, but they are so confusing as to render the making of accurate statements impossible. Both sides claim to be masters of the situation, but it is believed that the conditions are practically unchanged from those last reported.

It is reported from Corrientes that John N. Rolfin, American consul at Asuncion, Paraguay, is acting as agent for President Exentra and has telegraphed

MORE ARRIVE

wright and Caulkers Here.

The First Meeting Will Be Held Tomorrow Morning.

The annual convention of the International Union of Shipwrights, Joiners and Caulkers will begin tonight with the address of Mayor H. A. Yelzer, followed by the annual address of President Hugh Kirk, of Elizabeth, N. J., who arrived last night from his home.

The local lodge of shipwrights and caulkers has engaged an orchestra and will spread a banquet tonight.

Last night and this morning about fifteen delegates arrived and they have been coming in on every train. By night there will be fully thirty delegates here and the convention will be one of the most successful ever held. This is the first time one has been held so far south and the Paducah lodge intends to show the delegates what Kentucky hospitality means.

Among those of prominence here are President Hugh Kirk, Elizabeth, N. J.; Treasurer and Secretary Theo. Durert, Elizabeth, N. J.; First Vice-President John McDonald, Buffalo, N. Y., and Edwin Stokhouse, of Elizabeth, N. J.

The regular business of the convention will begin tomorrow and the convention will be open to all visitors who

NEW ELECTRIC ROAD WANTS FRANCHISE

Will Apply Tonight for Right of Way.

Desires To Go As Far South
Through Paducah as Tenessee Street.

THE OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

The Paducah and Cairo Electric Railway company will tonight at the regular meeting of the council ask for a franchise to enter Paducah. It will ask for right-of-way down Eighth street to Clay down Clay to Fifth, and up Fifth to Tennessee street.

The company, it is understood, will shortly be ready to begin work.

It is incorporated for $250,000, the papers being filed a few days ago, and a certificate of incorporation was received today.

It is not believed that much difficulty will be encountered in getting the desired right of way, as it was given once before to a projected railroad line from Paducah to Cairo, which project was finally abandoned.

From what could be learned today there will be little opposition to the proposed franchise.

The officers of the new company are
L. B. Whitesides, president; J. J. Freundlich, vice-president and general manager; W. H. Paul, secretary; C. E. Whitesides, treasurer.

R. M. Allen, of Lexington, was elected secretary and treasurer of the Pure Food congress at its closing session in St.
Louis.

MORE TROUBLE IN PROSPECT

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 3.—Half the town of Watrous was destroyed by the flood and at least twelve persons were drowned. Among these were the three children of J. A. Stevens, Felix, Vil Israel, his wife, two sisters and several children and O. F. Porter. J. E. Stevens and his wife escaped and have been brought here. They are in a critica condition. Many persons were rescued from trees and house-tops.

The greatest damage was around the junction of Mora and Sapello creeks.
The rock crusher, the great iron bridge and much track at Watrous were washed away.

The Gallinas river formed a new channel here. In the Gallinas Canyon the dams of the Aqua Pura company broke, bringing a terrific flood on the city.
The Montezuma Hot Springs track went out in many places. Half a dozen bridges were destroyed, and the Montezuma bathhouses were partly carried away.
For two blocks on Bridge street every business house was flooded. The big lifelike brick store was ruined and the bridge undermined. Gallinas park is under water and the trolley line cannot be repaired for two weeks. The race meet next week has been declared off.

One hundred thousand dollars will not cover the loss to the town and the railroad loss is equal to that of recent coasts in Arizona.

From Santa Rosa comes a report of the loss of the great iron bridge of the Rock Island railroad and much track age.

GIRL DROWNED

Daughter of Naval Officer Meets Sad Fate Near Cairo.

Fell From the Steamer Oleander and Was Caught Under a Barge.

Cairo, Ill., October 3.—Miss Margaret Vail, the 15-year-old daughter of Captain Holman Vail, lieutenant commander in the United States navy and lighthouse inspector for district No. 1, fell from the U. S. lighthouse tender Oleander, near Grand Tower, Ill., and was drowned.

The young lady, with her father, mother and younger sister were on the boat, taking the regular inspection tour with their father, and Miss Vail in some manner slipped and fell between a barge and the boat.

The body was recovered and brought to Cairo, where the remains were embalmed and shipped to Aurora, Ill., where the funeral will be held.

No one saw the accident. The members of the crew heard her scream and then a splash.

Captain Vail and family reside in Aurora, Ind. Mr. Vail is an officer in the United States navy and was detailed as inspector of government lighthouses in district No. 16. While in the discharge of his duties as inspector, he was accompanied by his family.

NO ENGAGEMENTS.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—Gen. Sakhaloff reports that the Japanese vanguard has been strengthened and reached a point twenty-five versts southeast of Mukden. There has been no serious engagements or movements at other points.

THREE ATTEMPTS TO WRECK VESSEL

Startling Admission Regarding Connecticut.

No Motive Yet Discovered—Pullman Car Employees Are Back at Work.

A KILLING IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 3.—Rear Admiral Hodgers, commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, before his retirement today made the official announcement that three attempts had been made to wreck the battleship Connecticut. The mystery of the attempts remains unsolved.

Navy department officials are thoroughly aroused over the discovery of the latest attempt to injure the new battleship.

Naval officers here are unable to ascribe a motive unless it was one of pure mischief. It is stated here that the injury to the ship is not serious and repairs can be made quickly.

Acting Secretary Darling, discussing the matter expressed great indignation over the repeated efforts that have been made to injure the vessel. This last effort he particularly characterized as a dastardly one and the perpetrator of the outrage, if apprehended, he said, deserved severe punishment.

EMPLOYEES BACK AT WORK.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—The employees of Pullman car works were called back to work today after a four weeks illness.
There was no recognition of union inter, each application being made individually. The old terms were offered and accepted.

REJECTED HIS ATTENTION.

New York, Oct. 3.—Michael Rogo, a young married woman, shot and killed Michael Rogo today, while she held her child in her arms. Rogo attempted to force his attentions on her.

EIGHTEEN KILLED

IN A BATTLE BETWEEN MACEDONIAN AND BULGARIANS.

Athens, October 3.—A fight occurred between a strong Macedonian force and a Bulgarian band near Ellassona, Macedonia. The fight lasted two hours and the Macedonian casualties were fifteen wounded, while the Bulgarians lost eighteen killed.

CARTOONIST KERR DEAD.

Louisville, Ky., October 3.—George Kerr, famous a few years ago as a cartoonist and illustrator, is dead at the Soldiers' Home in Dayton, O. He served in the northern army throughout the war, and at its conclusion became an illustrator for an eastern magazine, going later to a New York comic paper. He was a friend and contemporary of the late Thomas Nast.

Joseph W. Ulvert, of Pewee Valley, was declared the republican nominee for congress in the Seventh district by the

K. I. T. LEAGUE

PRESIDENT THOMPSON THINKS IT WILL REMAIN AS NOW.

President Thompson, of the K. I. T. League and Paducah fans have a different idea of what the Kitty League will be next year from the Cairo papers, which insist that the league will consist principally of Illinois and Indiana towns. President Thompson thinks it will remain as it is with possibly the addition of Owensboro and Evansville, the latter wanting to come into the league, not being able to support a big league team. He thinks that the attitude taken by Cairo in the pennant controversy will soon be abandoned, and that Cairo fans will quiet down.

The Kitty League has stood two seasons with the present membership and can stand again and President Thompson thinks it folly to attempt to break it up and experiment with other towns.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Darnport, Wingo, Ky., writes June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00. ## TOLEDO TO TRAIN HERE.

Chief Harry Lloyd, manager of the Paducah Indians for next season, has received a letter from Memphis managers asking for a date for the Memphis team against Paducah, also a letter from Mickey Flinn, manager of the Little Rock baseball team, Southern League, who will next season manage the Toledo, O., American Association, asking if he can secure the Paducah grounds for training next spring before the opening of the baseball season. It is probable that the local management will make some arrangements with the Toledo team as this will give the Paducah team an excellent opportunity to train with fast company. It is probable no other games will be played here this season.

Republicans, if you would vote, register Tuesday, October 4th.

LATE HAPPENINGS
IN POLICE CIRCLES

Special Officer Does Not Remember Shooting Green.

An Alleged Thief Is Arrested at Carbondale, Ill., and Brought Here For Trial.

MR. T. E. RILEY ASSAULTED

Special I. C. Officer Thomas Murray, shot Joseph Green, a towboat man, Saturday night late while Green was trying to get Murray home. Murray says he remembers nothing about the occurrence. He is being held for malicious shooting.

Saturday afternoon and evening Murray and Green were together, drinking. Murray had not been drinking for some time, it is said, and a few drinks "put him off watch." Towards 12 o'clock he began to get very drunk and after Blacknell's saloon, at Ninth and Kentucky avenue, was left, Murray was hardly able to stand up.

Green escorted him across the street to the Graham saloon and stood outside the door waiting for a cab in which he intended placing Murray and taking him home, Green not being so drunk.

Officers McTune and Orr, were near and came over to see the two. They perceived Murray was drunk and an argument was started with Green. It is said that Murray said, "Green you are making an ass out of me," to which Green replied that he was not, and was simply acting as his friend. Murray then called him a liar, and Green remarked that he wouldn't say that if he was sober, but that he was his friend and had been trying to take care of him. Murray stepped back, it is alleged, and said he was going to sit down on the door sill of the saloon, and when he stepped back pulled a gun and quickly fired into Green's right thigh.

The bullet made a flesh wound which is not serious, and so quick was the shooting done that Officers Orr and McTune, who had not the least suspicion or idea Murray was going to shoot, were powerless to stop him. Only one shot was fired, however, and after this the police grabbed Murray and took his gun away.

Green and Murray were both brought to the hall and after Murray had some what sobered and asked why he shot, he said he had shot no one and that he and Green were the best of friends. The case was today continued.

Herbert Smith, white, who until a few days ago worked for the I. C. road as fireman here, was brought to the city this morning at 7:30 o'clock and turned over to the police to await trial for robbery.

Smith gave the name of Gardner here and when first employed by the I. C. worked at pipe laying when the water mains were extended by the I. C. from Tennessee street to the coal chute. He was found one morning by Special Officer Tom Murray and a friendship sprang up between the two. Murray got Smith a job at pipe laying and when this was finished secured him a position fitting on the road. He roomed at Murray's house at Sixteenth and Jones street and last Friday when Murray retired for the day, being on duty during the night, Smith is alleged to have taken his gun, flash light lantern, and stay and skipped out.

The matter was reported to the police and Special Officer Dick Tolbert, of the I. C., began working on the case. He located Smith at Carbondale and telegraphed Detective Vandy, of the I. C., at that place, to arrest him which was done. This morning Vandy brought him here and turned him over to Officer Tolbert at the depot.

Smith is in jail here pending trial which will be given him tomorrow morning.

Tom Riley, a carman employed by the local I. C., was yesterday mysteriously assaulted Saturday night near Ninth and Washington streets and his watch and several dollars taken.

Riley was drunk and was picked up in the street near the Blacknell saloon late Saturday night. He had mud and blood all over his person and after washing several wounds made by knuckles in the head were discovered. The wounds were dressed and when Riley got sufficiently sober to tell what had happened, stated he was assaulted and robbed. He remembered little about it and could not tell where it happened or anything definite connected with it.

Riley is uncertain as to how much money he lost, but says it is between $10 and $20.

This morning late the police arrested Jim McTune, a tailor who has been in trouble time and again, and when brought into court announced that he

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman and Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unadorned testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Vennemister, La Crosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 4 years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all but are prepared for stomach trouble only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating, wind on stomach and similar disorders.

wanted to waive examination. Judge Sanders told him that he would be given a hearing tomorrow morning.

CARLOAD OF CABLE

EAST TENNESSEE WILL STRING A CABLE TO TYLER, KY.

A carload of cable was this morning received by the East Tennessee Telephone Company, and will be strung to Tyler, above Mechanicsburg, from Broad street. The work will begin at once, and will require but a few days.

Work on the telephone company's addition is progressing as rapidly as possible, but is necessarily slow.

The company is still waiting for a new switch board before putting the Palmer House telephone system into operation.

NOT KNOWN HERE

PADUCAH MAN REPORTED MISSING TO LOUISVILLE POLICEMEN.

The Louisville papers state that Edward Walker, of Paducah, a peddler, has been missing from his home here for several weeks, and its believed to be working in some of the Louisville rolling mills at Louisville. The local police say they know nothing about such a man, and know of no place here where a peddler could work in Paducah, and nothing of the kind has been reported to them.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS.

The board of health will meet tonight to make some decision regarding the sanitary conditions at the Paducah Packing company plant on South Tenth street. The board went to the plant Saturday and looked it over. It is said they found sanitary matters not very good, but that the management is making every effort possible to clean up and keep the place clean. This will be the only point of importance, it is said, to come before the board for action to-night.

CORONADO HERE

An Elegant Craft Arrived From Pittsburg.

Wealthy Owner and Family Are En Route to World's Fair.

The Coronado, a pretty stern-wheel twenty-horse power gasoline boat in charge of Capt. T. D. Kelly, of Rising Sun, Indiana, is at the wharf today. The owner is Capt. A. I. Scott, of Pittsburg. He has with him his wife and daughter and his son and his wife and two children. They are journeying to the world's fair and will then go down the Mississippi river to New Orleans, delaying, if necessary, several weeks in the Arkansas river.

The boat is elegantly finished inside and is fully equipped for comfortable living with kitchen, dining room, four double berth state rooms and a sitting room on the first deck, with a large room with glass slides and front that serves as pilot house and observation cabin and two sleeping apartments on the second deck.

In addition to other equipments the boat carries $600 worth of the finest guns and $100 worth of flags. The cabin is ornamented with fine paintings and photographs of Capt. Scott's city and country homes at Pittsburg. He was formerly a business man there, but is now retired and taking life easy. The boat left Pittsburg on September 8.

BOILS AND ERUPTIONS

Have been suffering from Impure Blood for many years, having Boils and other eruptions. Having heard of S. S. S. I decided to try it, and am glad to say that it has done me a great deal of good. I intend to continue to use it, as I believe it to be the best Blood Medicine on the market. Cleveland, Tenn. W. K. DRYERS.

For over fifteen years I have suffered more or less from Impure Blood. About a year ago I had a boil appear on my leg below the knee, which was followed by three more on my neck. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. After taking three bottles all boils disappeared and I have not been troubled any since. GALT G. FERGUSON.

114 W. Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky.

Newark, Ohio, May 23, 1903. From childhood I have been bothered with bad blood, skin eruptions and boils. I had boils ranging from five to twenty in number each season. The burning accompanying the eruption was terrible. S. S. S. seemed to be just the medicine needed in my case. It drove out all impurities and bad blood, giving me permanent relief from the skin eruption and boils. This has been ten years ago, and I have never had a return of the disease. Mrs. J. D. ATKINSON.

SMASHED GLASS

DAMAGE TO THE FRONT OF CHAMBLEE'S, PROBABLY BY THIEVES.

Sometime Saturday night a brick or boulder was thrown through the front door of Chamblee Bros., near Broadway and Fifth. The brick was evidently hard as it broke through extra heavy glass. The pane broken, however, was one of the door glasses, and not one of the big plate glass windows. Mr. Chamblee has a room over the store and thinks that the vandalism was committed between 1 and 2 o'clock as he was aroused by a noise about that time, and that the object was burglary, as the person who looks out the glass could then reach in, unlock the door, which has a spring lock, and go inside. Mr. Chamblee had a large amount of money after Saturday's sales, and thinks that someone saw him through the window counting it. If anything was stolen, however, it was not missed. None of the money was recovered, as Mr. Chamblee has no safe and took good care to put the money in a secure place.

HYPOTHESIZED SWINDLER.

Cairo Ill., October 3.—A man giving the name of Albert Miller is in jail here charged with working a shell game aboard an Iron Mountain train running into Cairo. He swindled one man out of $9 and was promptly taken into custody when the city was reached, being fined $200. He is believed to be a professional confidence man, as blank checks on 100 or more banks over the country were found in his pockets.

Suffering

Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folk who think it is better to bear pain than suffer it are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill. This will soothe your aching nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest need for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Disagitation, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pain. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results. "I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative power, for they are successful."—REV. RAY A. WATSON, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists, at 25c. Money back if that box does not help. Never sold in bulk.

WENT AWAY

C. H. Ogilvie Throws Keys Over Door and Departs.

Everything Straight and Nothing Is Known of His Whereabouts.

Friends of Mr. C. H. Ogilvie, a driver for the American Express Company and a well known young man, are wondering where he has gone. Last night he wrote a brief note to the local agent of the company, resigning, and stating that he would let them know later where to find him, stuck the note under the office door, and threw the key to the office over the transom.

He has not been seen since, and it is known where he went. Mr. Ogilvie's accounts are perfectly straight, and his employers thought a great deal of him and are unable to account for his sudden and inexplicable departure, unless he simply decided to go elsewhere to locate.

Each officer of election shall before entering upon the duties of his office take an oath faithfully to discharge his duties as such officer before some person authorized to administer an oath, or if no such officer be present it may be administered by the clerk of the election, who shall in turn be sworn by one of the judges of election."

"Section 50-a: The officers of election in the several election precincts of the respective cities and towns mentioned in the preceding section shall be the officers of registration in such precincts XXXX."

ASYLUM NOTES

ONE PADUCAH PATIENT HAS ENTIRELY RECOVERED.

Officer Scott Ferguson, who took a lunatic to Hopkinsville Saturday, has returned and stated that Jim Magner, who was sent up from here for alleged larceny, was apparently all right again.

Whenever a patient is cured and of the kind Magner is, he is turned loose in the yards and not watched. Often they run off and are never sent back again. Magner was simply laboring under the effects of several years of drinking and the authorities say when they kept whiskey away from him, he got all right.

Clifton Oester, who was sent from this city to Hopkinsville violently insane, is better. His case is a very bad one, however, the authorities say and he will not be easily cured, if at all.

SUPT. KNOWLES RECOVERS.

Mr. Clarence Knowles, superintendent of water supply of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, has about recovered after a week's illness of malarial fever and was able to go out on his division this morning to resume duty. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his recovery.

MUST BE DISPLAYED.

On All Government Buildings During Business Hours.

H. A. Mr. Taylor said it had come to his attention that in some cities the order was being neglected. He also instructs the custodians to see that the flags are not worn or dirty, and says that new flags will be issued to custodians whenever necessary.

ROOSEVELT AND PROSPERITY.

Confidence in the election of Theodore Roosevelt and a republican congress is evidence on every hand. Nothing so fully reflects the prosperity of our country as do our postal receipts which continue to increase throughout the entire country from month to month. Even the business done during the midsummer months of July and August show most substantial gains over not only corresponding months of previous years but over previous months of this year. These gains are in many cases as high as from 15 to 20 per cent. The general average being somewhat over 12 per cent.

Coincident with this gain in postal business are the increased orders now being placed with our iron and steel manufacturers for steel rails and structural materials even at the well maintained pool prices. Another evidence is the unusual activity now taking place throughout the country in the booking of orders for the late fall and winter trade among our merchants. The hotels of New York are today full of buyers from every part of the country who are giving large orders and who report from their sections that business prospects were never brighter. In short, we have manifested on every hand a revival in business which is most substantial and with the harvesting of the crops and the splendid returns which are about to accrue to the farmer it would seem as if a record-breaking spring and winter were before us. This will be fully materialized in case the republican party is successful at the polls on the 8th of November. Should the contrary be the case, however, we may look for a repetition of the conditions of 1892, and a consequent panic during 1893, which would correspond in a measure with the panic of 1893. Happily there is no prospect of any such calamity befalling the American people and yet disaster is sure to come if republican voters do not see to it that their votes are cast when the opportunity comes in November.

While the entire country will join with the president in a good laugh over this exploded sensation, says Walter Wellman in telling the story of the New York Evening Post's fake Roosevelt letter to Michael Donnelly, leader of the Chicago meat strike, there is a serious

THE REGISTRATION LAW

The last legislature (1901), amended Section 1486, Article 4, Chapter 41, Kentucky Statutes; and Section 1488, Article 4, Chapter 41, Kentucky Statutes, so that the section as amended reads as follows:

In all cities and towns of the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth classes there shall be a registration of all the qualified voters of the respective cities and towns, which registration shall be held and conducted as herein provided.

Officers of registration shall have the same power to preserve order at the places of registration as is exercised by sheriffs of election at the polls. If the officers of registration entertain any doubt as to whether or not any person offering for registration is entitled to such registration, or if any one's right to register is challenged, citizens may be called in, not exceeding three in number, who shall be examined touching the qualifications of such person or persons who offer to register. The officers of registration shall issue a certificate of registration to each voter registering, at the time he registers, showing that he has registered and the date of his registering, and no person, who is required to register under the provisions of this act, shall have the right to vote at any election held in this commonwealth until he shall have presented to the election officers his certificate of registration.

Any person who has registered, and whose certificate of registration has been lost or otherwise destroyed, after the registration books containing his registration have been filed with the clerk of the county court, may, upon filing his affidavit before the county court clerk, be issued a duplicate certificate, for which he may charge the applicant a fee of fifty cents and the said certificate shall entitle the person named therein to vote as if issued by the officers of registration, and for the purpose of better enabling the officers of registration to carry out the provisions of this act, it is hereby made the duty of the county court clerk to furnish with the registration books, as in this act required, a sufficient number of printed certificates of registration to meet the requirements of this act, for which he shall be paid a reasonable compensation out of the county levy of the county.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

DAVE HILL IN COMMAND.

It is once more revealed that Dave Hill is in complete command of the Parker campaign in New York, in spite of his retirement in the background, and his promised retirement, retirement from politics in January next, Mr. De Rupee, the district attorney of New York City, something called the "Folk of New York," was much indeed of last week as a possible Democratic nominee for governor. His name was so formidable that it alarmed Hill, and on Thursday he tried one of his usual tricks for the purpose of heading it off. He went openly to Jerome's office and offered him the Democratic nomination for attorney general. The following dialogue ensued:

"How would you like to be attorney general?"

"Is that the object of your visit here Mr. Hill?"

"Yes."

"And do you tender the nomination to me?"

"I do."

"Then Jerome broke loose."

"What authority have you to offer me a nomination?" said the district attorney. "Who made you the Democratic party?"

"What do you mean, Mr. District Attorney?" asked the startled Hill.

"Just what I say. I am no hired man and I have yet to see your commission to settle the personnel of the Democrat is ticket this year. Democrats have been given to understand that this is to be an open convention; that the delegates are to choose the officers. Are you the manager of the campaign? Do you think I will be a party to any slate making by you, Mr. Hill?"

"You may put a tag on some one but you can never put a tag on me."

In addition to these uncompromising observations, Mr. Jerome told Hill that he had denounced him in the past for some of his crooked acts and proposed to do the same in future, and that he knew facts about his friends McCarroll and Sheehan which would make a sensation if published, and he might feel it to be his duty to publish them if he took the field as a candidate. Finally he told Hill that he had no use for him and his machine, that he believed in honest methods in politics and in relying on the people for success. Hill never heard so much truth in his life before about himself, and he departed in great wrath.

So it appears that Judge Parker's political creator and most intimate manager at present is a man whom the "Folk of New York" refused to have any political relations with whatever and whose offer of a nomination for attorney general was met with contempt as something that would contaminate at honest man. Well, well!

—Republican rally tonight at Bockman's hall, Seventh and Kentucky avenues, at 7:30.

Chairman Ernst is Making no Claims at Present.

He Returns From a Tour of the State and Finds Everything Well—A Big Debate.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS

Congressman Ollie James and Hon. J. C. Speight, the former the Democratic candidate for congressman from this district, and the latter the Republican nominee, will meet in joint debate at Benton and there is a large crowd in Benton to hear them.

This morning Congressman James went down from Paducah and among the many who went from here were Hon. J. Will Graham, a Populist worker from this city; Attorney J. M. Worren, Captain J. E. Williamson and Mr. Ruse Dipple. They have business in Benton but went also to hear the speaking.

Chairman Richard P. Ernst, of the republican state campaign committee, was at the headquarters in the city here yesterday in conference with the committee and other prominent republicans, says the Louisville Herald.

Mr. Ernst has just returned from a trip through the western part of the state.

"I am more than pleased with the republican situation in Kentucky," said Mr. Ernst to a reporter for The Herald. "Our organization is in good working order and everybody is laboring earnestly and industriously. I am not making any predictions, but I am safe in saying that the republicans in Kentucky have every reason to feel encouraged."

The Paducah republicans have neat and attractive headquarters at present over Bockman's grocery, at Seventh and Kentucky, and it is quite popular with members of the party. Everybody is invited to come up tonight and at any other time they see fit. They will always find a welcome.

Every republican in Paducah and the incorporated towns of the district should register on next Tuesday, October 4th.

It is only kind to remind the democratic party that the first frost of the season is not far off and they had better take in their good resolutions before those young and tender plants come to grief.

"Marse Henry" Watterson seems to feel hurt because his party has objected to his agreeing with it in vigorous language. The sympathy of all right-minded men should be given to Colonel Watterson.

It was supposed that Hill would appear in the background at the New York state democratic convention, but perhaps the photographer took the picture on the wrong side of the group.

It is a little difficult to discover what kind of machine the democratic party thinks it has, but to hazard a guess one might call it a bolting machine.

Register Tuesday, republicans!

WHY?

If Theodore Roosevelt is not considered safe by the commercial and financial interests of the country why have stocks continued to rise during the past thirty days even in the midst of a presidential campaign when suspension and doubt have heretofore been the rule?

Why did Oregon in June call upon such a splendid majority for the Republican candidate?

Why did Vermont on September 4 give her candidates such a rousing majority?

Why did Arkansas on the preceding day show a large Democratic falling off?

Why did Maine on September 12 maintain the great majority of 1900 and give a Republican majority of several thousands in excess of the average Republican September majorities since 1884?

Why is the letting two to one upon Roosevelt and Fairbanks without any takers of the short end?

Why are the Democratic papers without exception, promising the Democratic management of the campaign and calling upon the candidate himself to come to the rescue?

Can there be but one answer to all these indications, and can they point only in one direction as to what will be the result on November 8? The fact of the matter is that the financial and commercial interests of the country, the agricultural interests of the country, the transportation interests of the country, the mining and forest interests of the country, and most of all, the laboring interests of the country, want a continuation of our present administration; they want John Hay retained as secretary of state; they want the Douglas law to be continued without any tinkering whatever, and they want to feel safe against the aggression of foreign competition of any nature or of foreign arms, by placing Theodore Roosevelt again at the head of the nation's affairs for another four years.

Theatrical Notes

Miss Emmalyn Prewitt Lackey, who is well and favorably known in this section has joined the "King Dodo" Opera Company as prima donna, playing the part of "Piola," a soldier of fortune. Miss Lackey comes of good old Kentucky stock, having been born in Madisonville. Her father, Dr. Prewitt, was very prominent in the dental profession and was also extremely active in politics, having by his oratorical powers gained the title of "The Silver Voiced Orator." Miss Lackey has been studying abroad for several years. She has only recently returned to this country. Last season she was prima donna with the Lela Glaser Opera Company in "Dolly Varden" and has also been soloist of the Royal Italian Band (founded by Creators).

Mr. F. Lawrence Walker is in the city arranging for the forthcoming engagement of Mr. Charles B. Hanford. Mr. Walker has been associated with this popular star for more than fourteen years, and each successive year has witnessed more elaborate presentations of the standard plays which constitute his repertory. This season, Mr. Hanford's extensive equipment necessitates more extensive preparations than those which suffice for ordinary theatrical engagements.

Mr. Hanford will present "Don Caesar De Bazan" at The Kentucky on Monday evening, October 17. The theater goes of this city will remember Mr. Hanford's splendid production of "The Taming of the Shrew" last season and will look forward to his forthcoming engagement with pleasurable anticipation.

Manager Englebr's good shows begin coming in pretty soon now. There are some fine attractions for the latter part of this month and November.

"Gentlemen," rose Armand's voice, "the happen, is just below. Will you come?"

"Dramatic," asked Gary.

At where the lookout is more agreeable able and less so in a game of two."

On a morning when land had long been promised and was eagerly looked for the young Frenchman, M. Armand mounted to the deck. His face was weathered, and the salt breath of the ocean came and stood beside him.
The Virginian came and stood beside him, and both looked down upon the wreckage of a legion of redemptioners crowding the lower deck, gazing dumbly up like cattle.

"A brave sight," submitted Gary, "to allow the riches of the colonies."

His tone was not without bitterness as the Frenchman perceived. "You would not have it so?"

"I? No. We have no need of some of the afflicting you see there. It will be used as the cause of crime, but what can the factory? The profit to them, and what harm to the king? It means more tobacco, and tobacco stuffs his cottons."

"Yet some of these may be lifted by opportunity."

"Yes," answered Gary. "That as they are. Wooden boxes, fair sleek for the last, shipped for schoolmasters. Their sides may be good citizens. New lands, new conditions. If this land be not cuddled with another's life, here these shall at least have hope. By their faces they leave not much to love behind them."

Before either spoke again a cry came up from where a kind of slovenly redemptioners were gathered—a cry and a hoarse word in one. Down below, at one side, a woman leaped, hugging a shawl wrapped bundle to her breast.

She was a dark, but with a certain austen beauty that is bred of Latin blood. Armand had seen her face more than once transfigured by that wondrous glory of mother love. He had that very day heard her crowding softly as she walked, midst the strange furtiveness with which she avoided the too curious gaze of her fellows, wondering what subtle grace nature had lent for mother eyes to those infant features.

Now one of the crew stood over her, clucking at the shawl. She was wearing passionately, loudly, without pretense of concealment.

"What a devil's that?" howled the mate's voice from a rope ladder.

"The brat's dead," said the sailor.

"How me tight, I've been watching her for two days. The little's low, singling to it to pull the wool over our eyes."

"Dead, is it? Pitch it overboard, then." He kicked down a groggy rag of canvas.

As the man he commended approached the woman she fell on her knees, shrieking in chase against the bulwarks and speaking rapidly in some foreign tongue.

"What's that lubbly?" asked the mate.

"She says," translated one of the pit-ful group around her, "that the land is so near and the water is cold. She wants to bury it in the ground."

"Spill me," cried the mate, "is that all? Over with it, Jerry?"

Again she spoke, vividly and with tunny growling sobs.

"That if it could only be blessed. There is no priest aboard."

The mate, with his hands on the rail, laughed at this. "What I say, you down there?" he cried. "Will ye stand making mouths all day? Tie it in that quiver."

The mate had hidden approached the woman to take the cold little body from her, but she turned suddenly a fury and, holding it to her breast with one arm, fought him off, screaming.

He jumped back, with his hand clapped to his nostrils. "The Jewish's bit me!" he yelled.

There was a great laugh from the sailors, and the mate cursed loudly from above. "Are ye mollycoddles, then?" he shouted. As they hesitated he scrambled down hand over hand drumming them for inaudibility and clearly minded to do it himself.

The Frenchman's fingers, as he stood beside the Virginian, gripped the rail
"Swine!" he said under his breath.
Then he leaned over and called clearly "Keep your hand from that woman!"

The mate looked up, astonished, at the group, for the other passengers had gathered to witness what was going on.

"What's that?" he asked.

Armand repeated his words.

The mate's face turned a spongy purple, and he turned in a way that was not good to hear. For answer he reeled out a hand to the shawl and literally tore it away from the poor clay it covered.

At the instant he did so Armand vaulted the rail where he stood, caught a rope, swung to a stanchion and landed as lightly as a cat at the side of the lurly ruffian. The net was so close, a graceful and so quick that none of the passengers could have told exactly how it was done.

The mate turned and, seeing him at his elbow, struck with all his strength at the other's head.

The strike was one to stun, but it never reached home. The young fer-ciger bent one side, not moving his feet, with a motion that would have spoken volumes to an athlete, and the mate's fist banged against the rail work. While he staggered from this Armand, seizing a rope's end as he cleared, cut him across the face with such a slash that the blood ran from the gash.

Now ensued a strange combat. The mate, heavy and cumbersome, tried to reach the other with sledge hammer blows. The Frenchman, slight, wary, circling, retreating, slipped hither and thither. Three times in as many seconds that brilliant "swish" song, and a red mark sprang out on the brutal face.

At each swing of the fist a sort of groan went up from the huddled redemptioners, and at each cut they sucked in their breath with delight. It was a new, strange entertainment for them to have a brain sick passenger descent from his deck to clam-por the cause of a scum.

The Virginian, looking down, was quivering violently. As the passenger swayed a blow that would have crushed his ribs he could not forbear a shout.

"Well done, by the Lord! But 'ware the clinch! 'Ware the clinch, mon dear!"

For the mate, though maddened on at himself, had shown a sudden gleam of purpose. He was forcing the secretary back into a corner between rail work and stanchion, not striking, but his body arms now stretched out while he. Even as Gary shouted the arms grasped Armand like a vise, and the strangling rope's end, useless now, fell to the deck.

Over the upper rail the passengers beamed, watching.

"A shame!" cried one. "That bloody army will kill him out of hand!"

"'Tis the clerk, 'Duhaw!" said the quartermaster. "The ship's with the middle. Let the rabble ease for him!"

The woman who had been the cause of this strange episode back of the first authority latent rowdiness, lunging her hand. The other eyes watched, knowing well what the scene would be, most of them receiving it as they had accepted the mawkish side face, the ears and the rest of the crew, with that stolid acceptance which, multiplied by centuries of hereditary, had brought them at last to this one condition.

The Virginian leaped down with el-brant helplessness. He looked to see the secretary, who had cracked in those arms, drop limp and senseless.
As he looked he saw Armand's face very white, turn up to him.

SOME CURIOUS NAMES THAT ARE FOUND IN CITY DIRECTORIES

What's in a name?

A perusal of the new Detroit City Directory, says the Detroit Tribune, which is usually credited with being exceedingly dry and verbose volume, reveals the fact that there are some very funny things in names, and that the cognomens of some Detroiters are strange and curious and would perhaps appeal to the risibilities of a foreigner quite as much as some of the names of the old land that prove studding blocks over which American tongues stammer and fall.

All the emotions, seasons, birds of the air and fish of the sea almost, have been pressed into service in naming Detroiters, while several have even been drawn upon the bowels of the earth. There are several Hells recorded. It is significant that no one is entitled to designate himself by the term of Heaven.

There are Summers and Winters, Springs and Falls, in the same class might be mentioned Shine, Shivers and plenty of Frosts. Somewhat indicative of the rainy seasons are the names Shish, Muddled, Snow and Hitch.

In tableware, there is one man named Fork, while a lady is known by the name of Knife. Spoons abound.

ARTICLES OF WARDROBE.

A variegated wardrobe is represented, there being Shirts, Coats, Hats, Collars, Stockings, Socks, Cloaks and even one Shodbottom.

As a reminder of chastisement are the names of Whalen, Thrasher and Pinches. No Kicks have been registered. Names which make one think of his youth are Bumps, Cuffs and Falls.

A vain search was made for the name Licking, although Lacking approaches very nearly to it.

Romantic names such as Dear, Darling and Kiss are frequently to be found, while there is quite a bunch of Kitties. There are also a sufficiency of Sweets, while one gentleman bears the name of Lovely. There is one lady in Detroit who rejoices in the possession of the charming name of Pretty.

Something on the friendly order are the names Gourmand, Fellows and Chaps. Besides the Birds and Fowls might be mentioned incidentally the names of Sparrow, Stork, Duck and Swan, while a more exhaustive search would reveal many others.

One of the most remarkable names to be found in this year's directory is that of a man whose surname is Kill.
The police are not taking any notice of him, being too busy with the hobnobing. The medical fraternity should be glad to know that we always have with us persons bearing the name of Fitts and Paine.

SOULS OF DEAR.

Names of warlike sound like Spears, Lannon, Clubs, Darts and Guns appear in profusion. Of one man it is stated in the big book that he is a Dicksie.
A name to interest the small boy is that of Trubbs, while one that ought to appeal to a thing is that of Bubb. One individual whose the bodies are asked not to Shrum is a man of that name living in Detroit.

Mr. Tapp and Mr. Sink must be handily fellows about the kitchen, while Mr.
Huck doubtless moves along at a lively rate. Mr. Fish and Mr. Snicker also should come in for a share of attention at this season.

Then there is a man name Heller.
There are also a few Howells and plenty of Tellers. Mr. Cornett and Mr.
Horn appear among the odd names.
Those interested in physiology will be glad to know that there are people named Head, Arms, Legs and Feet.

A gentleman it might be well to know in a moment of temporary excitement such as ensues when one strikes one's thumb with a hammer is Mr.
Damm. One individual who may not believe in cursing the whole town bears the name of Danico. A gentleman accredited with being very slow is Mr.
Sly. Mr. Short also claims some attention.

Mr. Sams and Mr. Sweet,
Mr. Strong and Mr. Weak,
Mr. Moody and Mr. Soble,
Mr. Wood and Mr. Tide,
Mr. Hook and Mr. Book,
Mr. Hook and Mr. Snook,
Mr. Hull and Mr. Bear,
Mr. Buck and Mr. Hare,
Mr. Hart and Mr. Hilde,
In the directory you will find.

NEW THEATER

MR. W. L. BRAINERD HAS DE-SIGNER ONE FOR OWENSHORO.

In ninety days Owensboro will have complete and ready for opening one of the finest theaters in the south, and a Paducah architect designed it. Podley and Buren, for several years past theater managers there, have made the announcement that they will this week let the contract for the erection of a theater, according to the most modern ideas, and to cost approximately $10,000. A provision of the contract will be that the work must be completed inside of ninety days.

Plans and specifications for the building were drawn by W. L. Brainerd, of Paducah. Mr. Brainerd drew the plans for the Kentucky theater here and the English theater in Henderson, and has an enviable reputation as a designer of theater buildings.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, KY., March 5, 1903.
To Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

MRS. JOHN SHELLEY, 306 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. SUE GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

There is nothing remarkable about it, even though written by a man past
